

Anti Narcotic Police Station Panaji Goa, apart from registering and investigating drug-related cases, the Anti-Narcotic Police Station has been proactively reaching out to the public by creating awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse.

On the occasion of 26th June, observed as the International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, the Anti-Narcotic Police Station conducted various awareness programmes, including drawing and painting competitions for school students and slogan-writing competitions for the general public. In addition, a 10 km Anti-Narcotic Run was organised, in which over 500 runners from all sections of society enthusiastically participated and successfully completed the run. Further, a pledge was also administered, wherein participants consciously committed themselves to cooperate in preventing drug abuse, stay away from drugs, and lead a healthy and responsible life.

With its zero-tolerance approach towards drugs, the Anti-Narcotic Police Station has been instrumental in reaching out to numerous schools, higher secondary institutions, and colleges across the length and breadth of Goa, imparting vital knowledge to students about the adverse effects of drugs on their lives, society, and the nation at large. So far, the Anti-Narcotic Police Station has covered more than 50 educational institutions, sensitizing over 10,000 students, teachers, and parents.

SP ANC, Smt. Sunita Sawant, a torchbearer of this social cause, despite her busy schedule, has personally delivered lectures at BITS Pilani, Hedgewar High School, and St. Joseph High School, collectively addressing over 5,000 students and faculty members.

The Anti-Narcotic Police Station plans to continue the same zeal and enthusiasm in 2026, with a firm mission to make Goa a drug-free State.
